Who Are Liverpool's Biggest Rivals?

- I personally think that Liverpool's biggest rivals are Manchester United. In every game they play against each other, they play aggressive, they never give up, and move the ball well. Here is a timeline of some of the games they played against each other...

Timeline Between the Two Rivals

Fixtures Against Each Other	Liverpool Wins	Draws	Manchester United Wins
League	54	44	63
FA Cup	4	4	9
League Cup	3	0	2
Other	2	3	1
Total	63	51	75

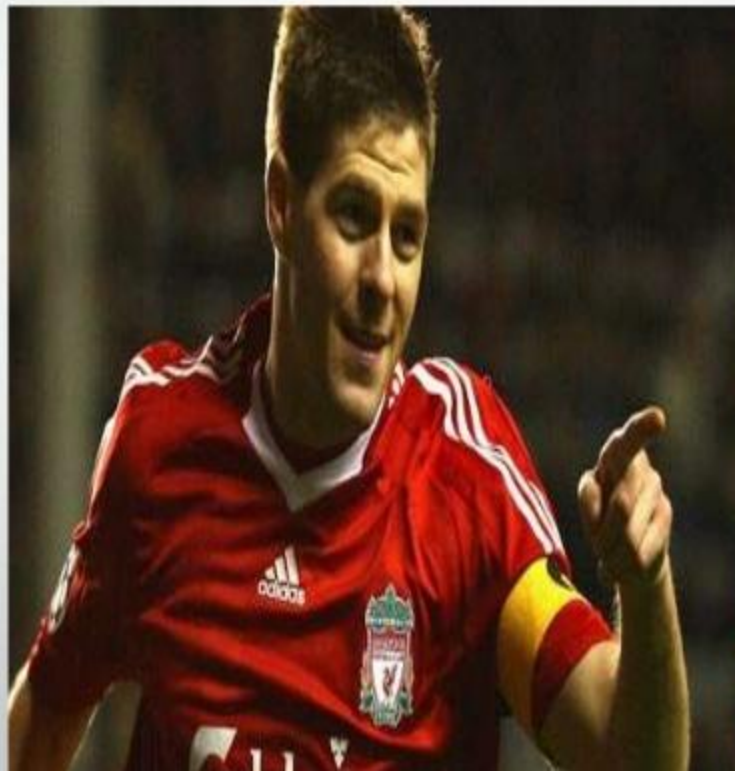

Liverpool FC's Derby

- Now we're on to Liverpool's derby, Everton. A derby is when there are two or more teams in the same city/town. This particular derby is called the Merseyside derby. The last time these two teams played it was a very exciting game to watch. The final score was 3-3 just because of an amazing header by an amazing player Daniel Sturridge in the dying seconds of stoppage time.

3 Important Players From the Past and Present

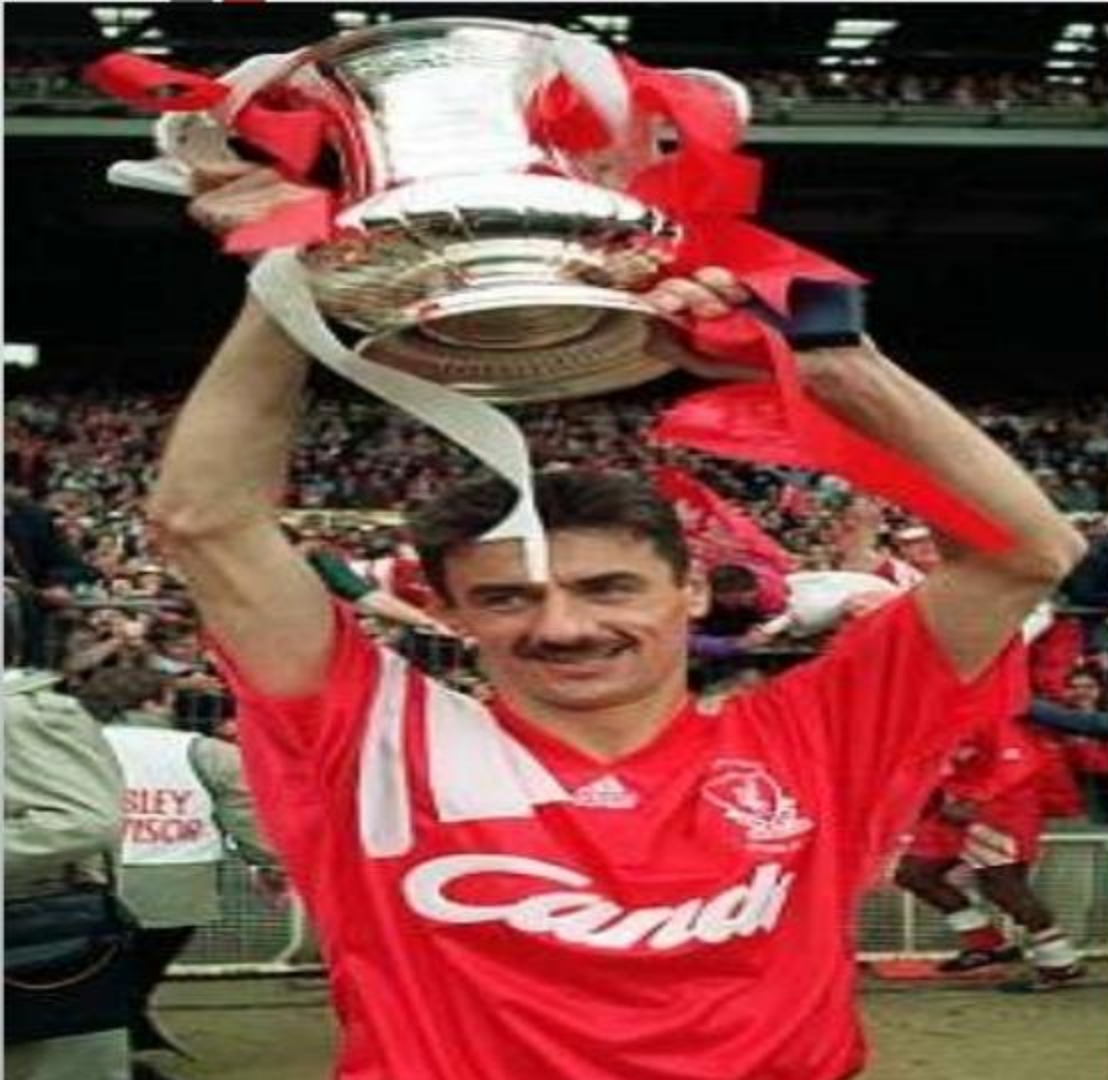

- Robbie Fowler
- Ian Rush
- Steven Gerrard

Robbie Fowler

- Robbie Fowler is an Outstanding player who plays striker and his nationality is English. His first team club was in the academy team for Liverpool. As his ranks in the academy got up, he finally got a contract with Liverpool on April 9, 1992. Robbie Fowler still holds a record today since 1994 against Arsenal scoring the fastest ever hat-trick in Premier League history. He scored his hat-trick in 4 minutes and 33 seconds and helped Liverpool win the game.

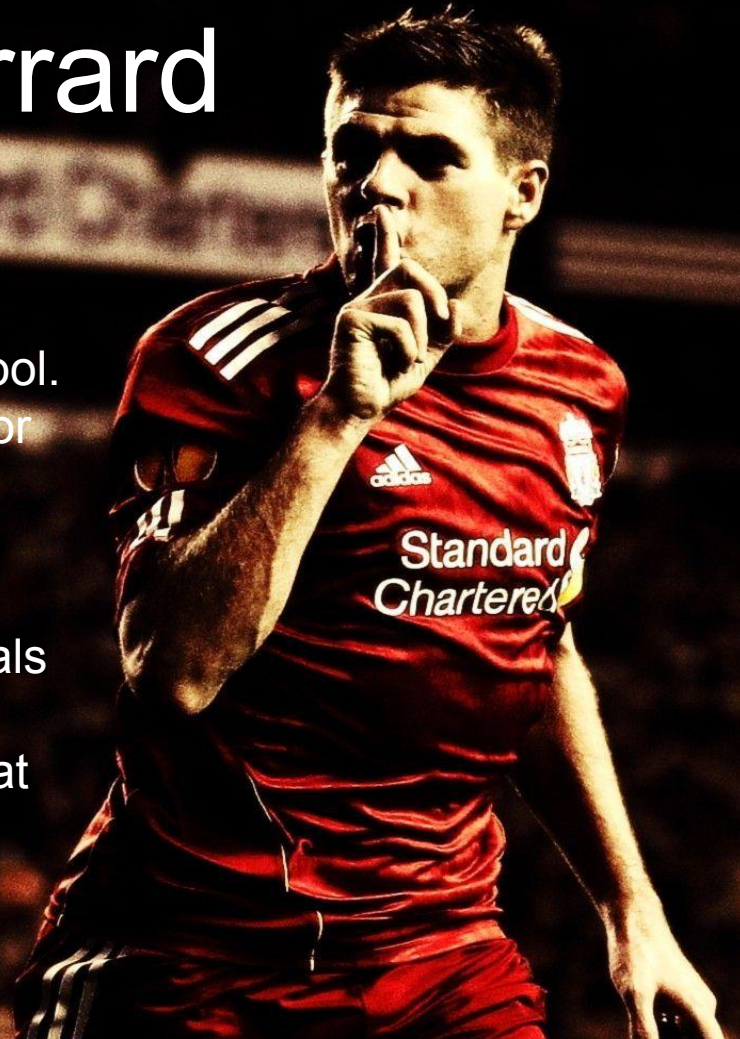

Ian Rush

- Ian Rush was very successful at Anfield. If I were to describe him in one word for his entire career it would be GOALS. He scored 346 of them for Liverpool in 660 games. He signed for Liverpool in 1980 and his debut for them was in December 13, 1980. He is a Welshman and played for 8 different clubs. The crowd of Anfield Stadium loved him.

Steven Gerrard

He has brought many happy moments to Liverpool.
The most memorable moment that I think was for
Steven Gerrard
Was when he started the comeback against AC
Milan 3-0
down at half in the UEFA Champions League finals
and tied
3-3 as you saw in the video. Liverpool still won at Istanbul
In penalty shoot out.
