

Present simple and continuous

Present simple

- Form: I/you/we/they work.
He/she/it works.
I/you/we/they don't work.
He/she/it doesn't work.
Does he work? Do they work?

Use: we use the present simple tense to:
- give information about permanent activities

They go to school every day .
They don't go to the cinema.
- Do they go to restaurant ?
- No, they don't.

- describe a state that doesn't change:

(He looks like his father.)

- talk about routine activities, repeated actions or habits:

(I often travel abroad on business.)

- Timetable and programs:

(The airplane arrives at 8 pm.)

- When we talk about feelings and emotions

(I don't like basejumping because it's too dangerous)

-some verbs are always used in the present simple (not with -ing):

What do you mean? I remember her name.

Full list of stative verbs you can find at the end of your books (GR1)

Present continuous

- Form:

	I	AM		working.
	He, She, It	IS
	We, You, They	ARE

	I	AM NOT		working.
	He, She, It	IS NOT/ISN'T
	We, You, They	ARE NOT /AREN'T [ɑ:nt]

	What Where When Why How	AM	I	doing? working?
		IS	he, she, it
		ARE	we, you, they

Use: - describe activities in progress at the moment of speaking

(She is talking to him on the phone right now.)

- describe temporary situations:

(The delegation is staying at the Hilton until Friday.)

- refer to future arrangements:

(He is starting a new job next week.)

- describe changing situation:

(We are developing a new marketing strategy.)

- sometimes with "ALWAYS" to show emotional state (as usual anger) caused by an action repeated too often:

Harry and Sally are always arguing!
