

PRESENT SIMPLE-USES

1. For habits.

- I usually get to school by bus.
- I have tennis lessons on Thursdays.

Time expressions:
Always, usually, often,
sometimes, rarely, never

PRESENT CONTINUOUS-USE

1. For actions happening NOW

- Look! The dog is chasing the cat!

Time expressions:
now, right now,
at the moment

Stative Verbs

1

weigh cost
measure
equal resemble

want prefer desire
have need
own
belong
possess

see
hear
smell
taste

know
understand
remember
forget
think
hope

believe realize
mean
suppose recognize
mind

love
hate
like dislike
envy
feel
care
miss

Dad, I need some money for tomorrow school trip.

am needing

need

Mm! This curry tastes delicious! Have you made it yourself?

is tasting

tastes

- Jack. Are you having a good time?

- Yes, but unfortunately I have to leave soon.

am having to have to

- Where is grandpa?

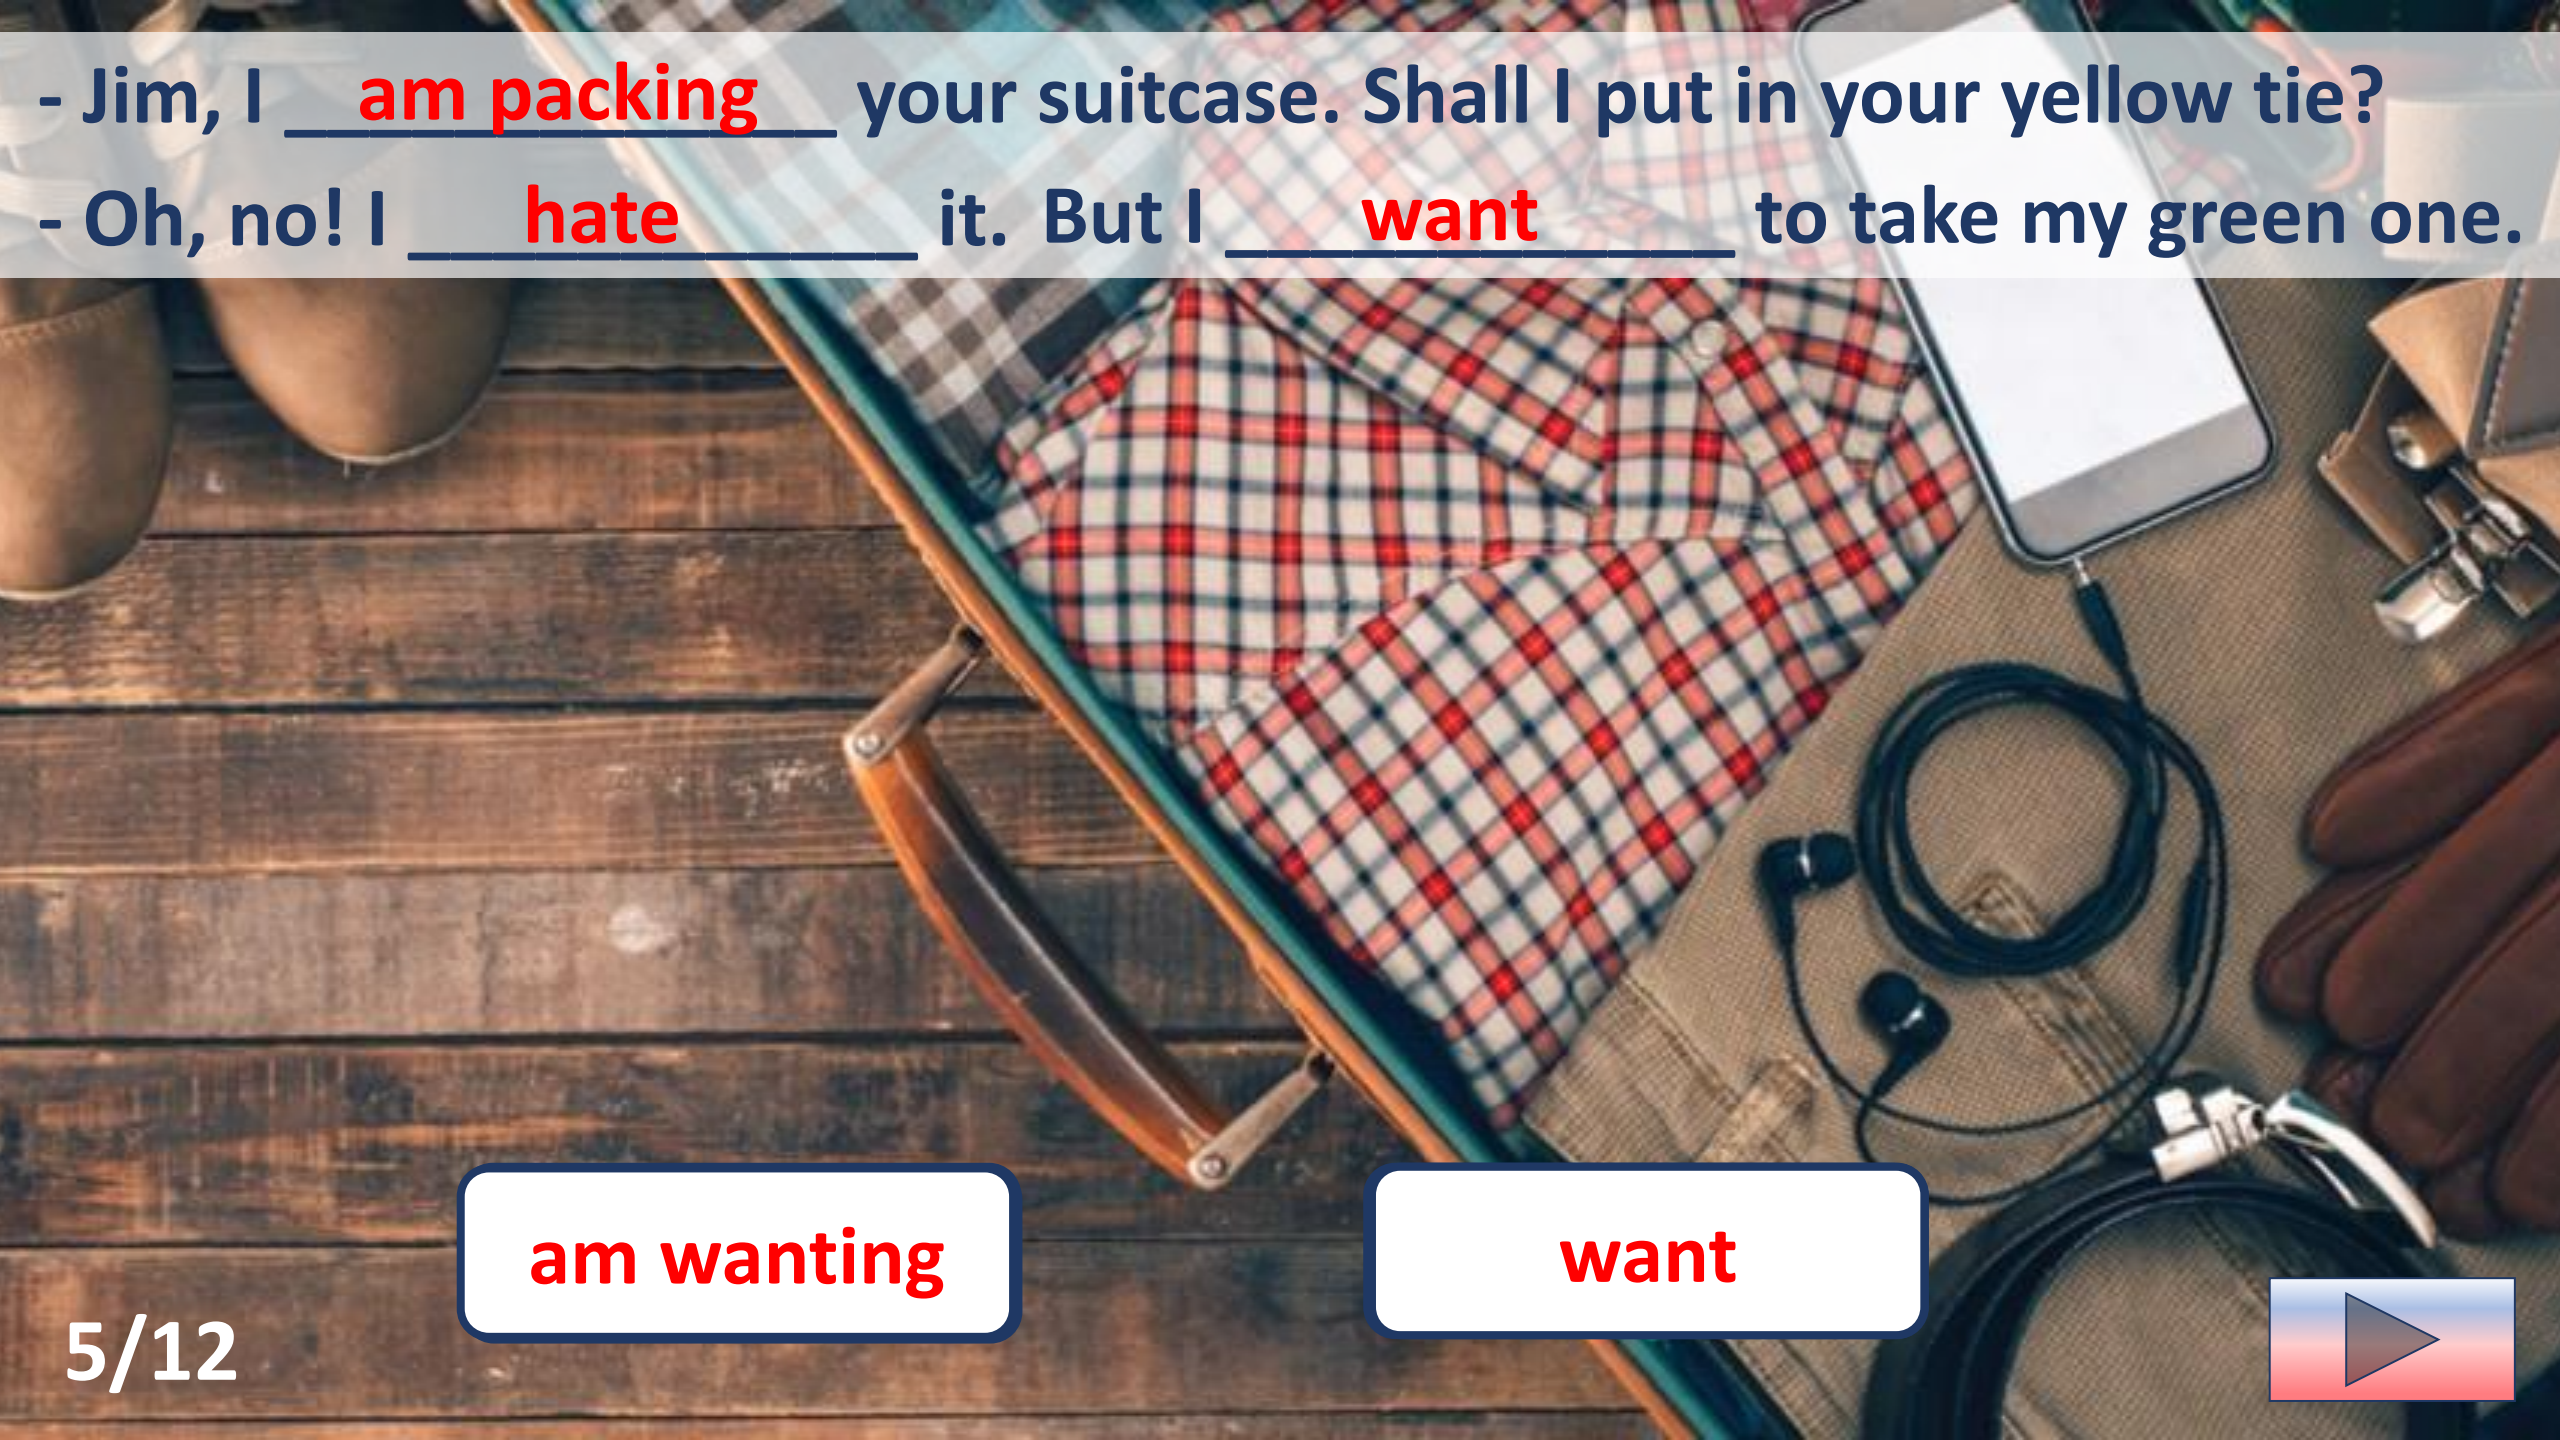

- He is working in the back garden.

is working

works

- Jim, I am packing your suitcase. Shall I put in your yellow tie?
- Oh, no! I hate it. But I want to take my green one.

am wanting

want

Don't let anyone into the surgery.
The doctor is seeing one of his patients.

is seeing

sees

Our Spanish teacher has given us a text to read, but I don't understand it.

It contains a lot of difficult words.

- Is your brother still unemployed?

- No, he is working in my uncle's office for the time being,
but he is looking for a job in his own field.

is working /
is looking

is working /
looks

works /
is looking

works / looks

Sandra's mother is a scientist.
She works at a university hospital in the city center.

is working

works

We live in a flat big enough for us and our baby.

But at the moment my husband's niece is living with us,
so we are short of space.

is living

lives

- Do you remember her name?
I think that it starts with a B.

am thinking /
is starting

am thinking /
starts

think /
is starting

think / starts

My favorite group is playing at the Town Hall tonight.

Everybody Is going . Do you want to come with us?

THANK YOU FOR WORK!

12/

by helgabel

Are ... wanting

Do ... want

www.vk.com/egppt