

How to humor your stress

With Loretta LaRoche

Biography:

Loretta LaRoche (born 1939) has been a stress management consultant for over 30 years.

Loretta LaRoche is an award winning, acclaimed speaker, author and international stress expert and humor consultant. With irreverent humor and an innate sense of the absurd, she helps people see how needlessly complex and stressful our lives can become.

She is founder and president of The Humor Potential, Inc, a company offering programs and products for life style management.

She is the author of seven books, including “Life is Short, Wear Your Party Pants.”

Her career path has also included many one-woman shows across the country, and her passion for singing has led her to creating a jazz album.

She believes and lives her message, “Life is not a stress rehearsal!”

Seinfeld

Seinfeld is an American sitcom television series created by Larry David and Jerry Seinfeld for NBC.

(1989 – 1998/ 9 seasons)

It is often described as being "a show about nothing", as many of its episodes are about the minutiae of daily life.

Seinfeld is widely regarded as one of the greatest and most influential sitcoms of all time. It has been ranked among the best television shows of all time.

Much of the show's humor is based upon repeated use of irony, incongruity, and (oftentimes unfortunate) coincidence(s) as plot devices for many of the individual episodes' plots and humorous moments

Discussion

- Is being funny a natural ability or can a person learn to be funny?
- Have you ever played a practical joke on another person? What did you do? To whom?
- Why do people say laughter is the best medicine?
- How often do you have a good laugh?
- Laughter is catching. Do you start laughing when you see or hear other people laughing? Why do you think it happens?
