

Relative pronouns

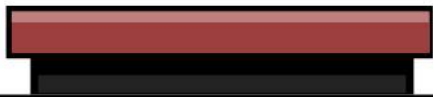

who, why, when,
which, whose, where,
what

The woman _____ who works in reception is French.

That's the hotel _____
we ~~spent~~ where our honeymoon.

The reason _____ why we stopped going to that restaurant was because the service was so long.

The teacher, _____ who was mentioned at the meeting, is over there.

The town _____ where they live is by the sea.

I understand _____ what you mean.

Is that _____ why you decided not to go there anymore.

Jenny, _____ whose father is a judge, is studying law.

Can you see the man _____ is standing at the bus-stop?

The restaurant _____
we had lunch yesterday was in the papers this morning.

We often go to St. Tropez _____ is ~~on the~~ which French Riviera.

July and August are the months _____ it's the hottest in France.

St. Tropez is _____ where Bridget Bardot lives.

No, that isn't _____ I whatsaid!

That's John, the man _____ who has just been promoted.

That's John, the man
----- who has just been
promoted.

Thank you for your report _____ which was very interesting.

Brian, _____ whose car broke down, arrived late at the meeting.

The house was broken into _____ Lucy ~~was~~ when shopping.

Saturday was _____ we were when expecting them to arrive.

Look at that big white house! That's _____ my mother where was born.

