Harrods

“ENTER A DIFFERENT WORLD”

History of the Store

- Harrods was opened in 1849 and run by Charles Henry Harrod. It was a small greengrocer's then
- Harrod's son added medicine, perfumes, sweets and van delivery service.
- Over years Harrods survived a fire, two world wars and even two bombings.
- In 1983 Harrods opened a branch in Asia and in major European cities.

Departments and Services

- Now Harrods has got 300 departments on its seven floors.
- It employs over 4000 staff and eight doormen. (Green Men)
- The store also has its own fire brigade, security personnel, doctors and nurses.
- It has food halls and restaurants.
- There is also a bank, a travel agent's, a dry cleaner's and the biggest beauty salon.

The Sales

- January and July are sale times.
- A lot of customers visit the store these days.
- Many people sleep outside the shop to be first to come in the morning.

Memory

- Mohamed Al Fayed is a Chairman of Harrods nowadays.
- He devoted a memory corner in Egyptian hall in Harrods to Princess Diana and Dody Al Fayed.
