The red rose became the emblem of England after the War of the Roses (1455-1485) which was the war for the English throne.

Saint George, a soldier in the Roman army, saved a princess, killed a dragon.

The Saint George's cross is the English flag.

While England does not have an official national anthem, there are many songs which are considered to fill such a role. In most of the national sporting fixtures 'God Save the Queen' is used.

God save the queen

1. God save our gracious
queen,
God save our noble
queen,
God save the queen.

Refrain:

Send her victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long live to reign over us
God save the queen.

2. Oh, lord our god arise,
Scatter her anemies
And make them fall.

Refrain:

Confound their politics,
Frustrate their knowrish tricks.
On Thee our hopes we fix
God save us all.
