

A colorful cartoon illustration featuring two rabbits and a sign. The sign, which is a piece of paper pinned to a wooden board, reads "Let's buy some fruit" in a black, cursive font. On the left, a male rabbit with a red bow tie and a small pink flower in his hand looks towards the sign. On the right, a female rabbit with a large green polka-dot bow and a wide smile looks at the sign. The scene is set in a garden with green grass, several blue and pink flowers with yellow centers, and a green bush in the background. The overall style is bright and cheerful.
