

Maslenitsa

Презинтацию подготовила Эливанова Катерина

when they celebrate?

- Maslenitsa begins 7 weeks before Easter. Maslenitsa lasts a week and is a preparation for the Great Post. Every day from seven holidays has its purpose and name.

First day

- the beginning of the holiday, they build a scarecrow from straw and dress up in women's bright outfits.

Second day

- parties, games, fairs. On this day the young men selected brides, and the girls looked at the guys.

Third day

- invite to visit the mother-in-law, hence the expression "to the mother-in-law for pancakes."

Fourth day

- in the midst of fun competitions, dances and famous in Russia battles are arranged.

Fifth day

- the son-in-law invites his mother-in-law with the father-in-law. Before that, the guests sent their son-in-law everything necessary for the preparation of pancakes.

Sixth day

- invite relatives of the bride to visit, and preparations are also underway to complete the holiday.

Seventh day

- forgiven Sunday, everyone begs for forgiveness from each other and burns the straw stuffed Maslenitsa.

why do I like Maslenitsa?

- I like Maslenitsa because different activities are taking place on this day. Also on this day you can eat delicious pancakes.
