

IDIOMS

as cool as cucumbers

My friend Harry is _____; he never gets upset.

my cup of tea

Opera is not

---

work for peanuts

Before she became famous
she used to work
                    ! She
could hardly buy a lipstick.

a butterfingers

I dropped another plate! I'm such

---

today.

a piece of cake

Taking photos should be _____
with the new camera I've got.

couch potatoes

Most evenings the Dursleys sit, like a
pair of

---

in front of television.

the salt of the Earth

Robert is
                                . He
donates most of his salary to charity and volunteers weekly at the hospital.

full of beans

Ron is certainly _____ _____ again after his illness.

in a jam

Hermione found herself _____ when a troll popped in the girls'
bathroom.

like two peas in a pod

Fred and George
Weasley were like

a hot cakes

The books about Harry Potter were sold like _____, weren't
they?
