Key (Suggested answer)

- There are many different kinds of sport such as: outdoor sports like football, basketball, volleyball, tennis, skiing, skating, jumping or indoor sports such as: chess, gymnastics, boxing. I like watching football on TV because the commentator knows all the names and gives information on what is on in the field and about every sportsman who plays. In my opinion, it is very exciting to watch football match with your father or friends. It's spectacular.

* Some people are fans, some like to be sportsmen. But I think not all are good for us because some of them are extremely dangerous like, for example, surfing, diving, rugby, boxing. You can easily have injuries. Many sports are very difficult like gymnastics. You have to train a lot and it takes much time and you must have a coach.

- * But sports can teach you to concentrate when doing a job.
- * You must do quick decisions. You must be patient. You must know how to work with partners in team.
- * I prefer games. There is nothing for me than football.
