MANNERS,

MANNERS...

*This is the house
Where families meet
To continue their lives,
To eat and sleep,
To find their strengths,
And dry their tears,
to look forward with hope
To better years.
This is the house
That becomes their home.
This the house
That love built.*

Traditional Drinks in England.

Tea

- Britain is a tea-drinking nation. Every day we drink 165 million cups of the stuff and each year around 144 thousand tons of tea are imported.
- Tea in Britain is traditionally brewed in a warmed china teapot, adding one spoonful of tea per person and one for the pot. Most Britons like their tea strong and dark, but with a lot of milk.
- Interesting Fact. Years ago, the milk was poured into the cup first, so as not to crack the porcelain.

Did you know?

If someone asks you if you 'would like a cuppa', they are asking if you would like a cup of tea.

If someone says 'let me be mother' or 'shall I be mother', they are offering to pour out the tea from the teapot.

LUNCH

- What is a typical English lunch?
- Many children at school and adults at work will have a 'packed lunch'. This typically consists of a sandwich, a packet of crisps, a piece of fruit and a drink. The 'packed lunch' is kept in a plastic container.
- Sandwiches are also known as a 'butty' or 'sarnie' in some parts of the UK.
- Their favourite sandwich is prawn and mayonaise. They also like tuna and mayonaise and ham and pickle sandwiches.

Put a napkin
on your lap

Sit as straight as you could

If something on the table is too far away, you can stand up and take it.

Never, ever try to take from other people's plates.

Spoons
are for soup,
Forks – for cakes
and stew.

You shouldn't talk
while you are eating

Never, ever
try to bite
more food than you can chew.

Elbows close to your sides

The fork goes on the left,
The knife goes on the right,
And never, ever try to eat
Without your fork and knife.

Manners, Manners...

The fork goes on the left,
The knife goes on the right,
And never, ever try to eat
Without your fork and knife.

Spoons are for soup,
Forks — for cakes and stew.
But never, ever try to bite
More food than you can chew.

Refrain:

Manners, (manners)
They are all that matters.
Sit as straight as you could,
Elbows close to your sides.

Manners, (manners)
They are all that matters.
Never play with your food,
And you will be all right.

If something is too far,
You pass it to your mates.
But never, ever try to take
From other people's plates.

To talk at table is polite,
And not to talk is rude.
And never, ever try to talk
When your mouth is full of food

Refrain

At table every time
You have to watch yourself,
And never, ever start
Without a napkin on your lap.
