

Lewis Carroll

(27.01.1832 – 14.01.1898)

Answer the questions, say:

1. When Lewis Carroll was born
2. What his real name was
3. Which of the 3 lives was most successful
4. Who asked him to write down the story
5. From what words his pen-name came
6. What in the text shows popularity
7. What shows that the book is still widely read
8. How Lewis entertained children
9. When he died and why

Answer the questions, say:

1. When Lewis Carroll was born-in 1832
2. What his real name was –Charles Lutwidge Dodgson
3. Which of the 3 lives was most successful-writing
4. Who asked him to write down the story-Alice
5. From what words his pen-name came-first two names
6. What in the text shows popularity- thousands of copies
7. What shows that the book is still widely read-every child reads his book
8. How Lewis entertained children-stories,games, puzzles
9. When he died and why- in 1898,bronchitis

Describe the book:

I think

In my opinion + the book is...

To my mind

Make up the story:

1. It tells about the boy named Harry Potter who becomes a wizard, and his adventures in the magic world.
2. I'd like to tell you about my favourite book.
3. It was published in 1997.
4. The book was written by Joanne Rowling.
5. I think the book is very exciting and fantastic.
6. Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone is a novel.

1. I'd like to tell you about my favourite book.
2. Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone is a novel.
3. It was published in 1997
4. The book was written by Joanne Rowling.
5. It tells about the boy named Harry Potter who becomes a wizard, and his adventures in the magic world.
6. I think the book is very exciting and fantastic.

Alice's Adventures in Wonderland

Creatures in the book

Interesting facts about the book:

1. There are about 6 million copies of the book around the world;
2. It is translated into 11 languages;
3. About 60 films are based on the book