

Interesting Facts about UK

? DID YOU KNOW ?

? ?

England

- French was the official language of England for about 300 years, from 1066 till 1362.

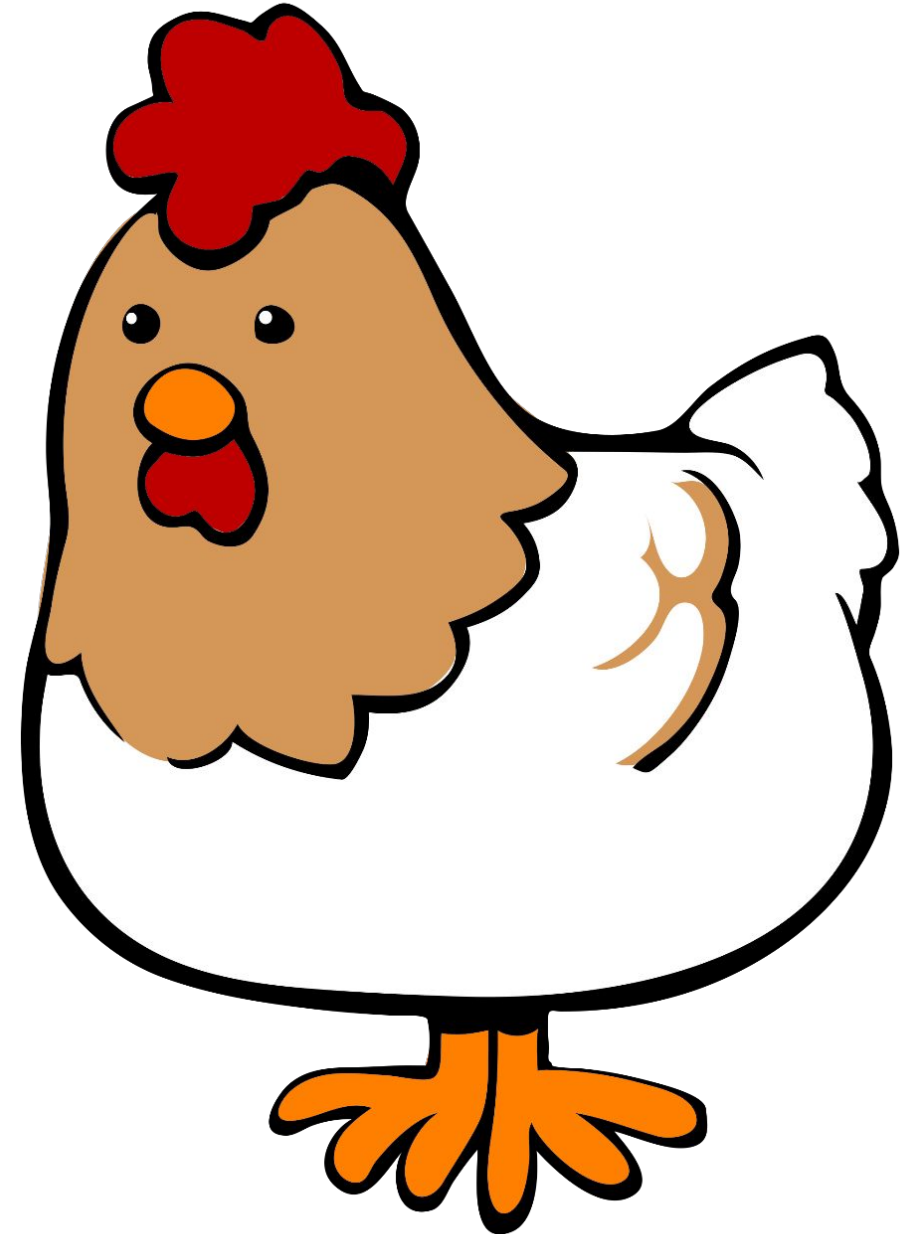

England

- The English drink more tea than anyone else in the world.

England

- There are more chickens than humans in England.

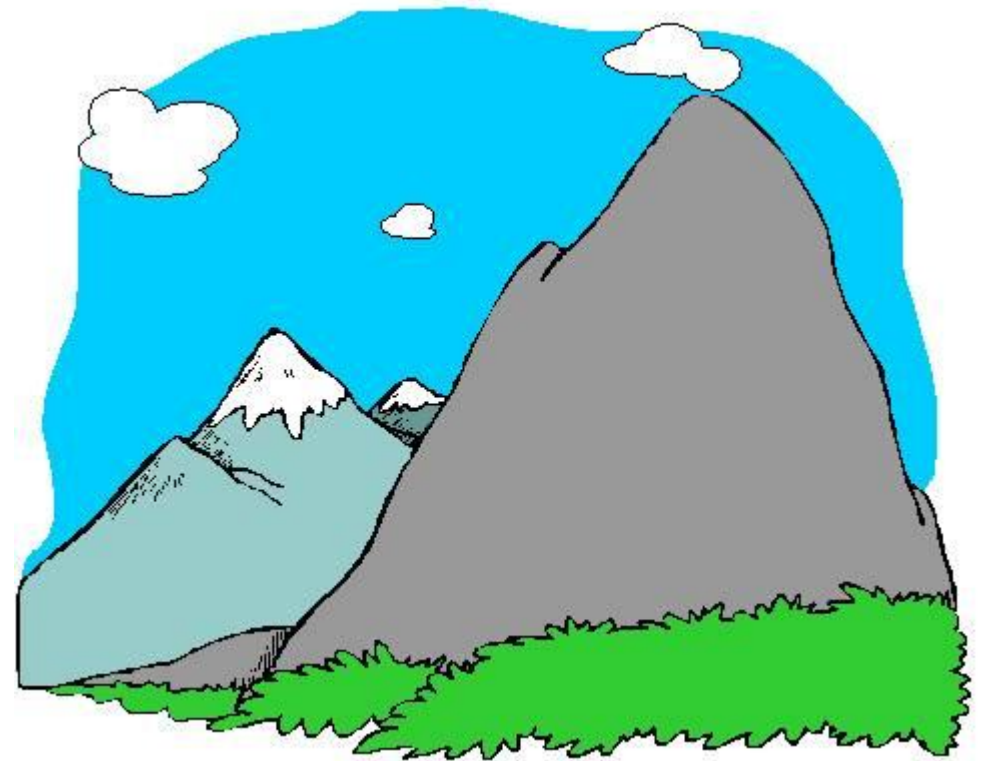

England

- 25% of England's population were born outside of the country.

Scotland

- Mountain Ben Nevis is the highest point in Scotland (more than 1343 m).

Scotland

- Scotland is home for one of the oldest universities in the world, which was founded in 1410.

Scotland

- 11% Scottish people have red hair – a higher percentage than in any other country.

Wales

- The population of sheep in Wales is four times greater than the Welsh population of humans.

Wales

- Only 21% of the entire Welsh population can speak the native language.

Northern Ireland

- The famous ship “Titanic” was built and launched from Belfast Harbor in Northern Ireland.

Northern Ireland

- On average, it rains 157 days a year in Belfast.

