TASK 4

Task 4. Imagine that you and your friend are doing a school project “An ideal weekend”. You have found some illustrations and want to share the news. Leave a voice message to your friend.

In 2.5 minutes be ready to:

- explain the choice of the illustrations for the project by briefly describing them and noting the differences;
- mention the advantages (1-2) of the two types of weekends ;
- mention the disadvantages (1-2) of the two types of weekends;
- express your opinion on the subject of the project – what kind of weekend you’d prefer and why.

You will speak for not more than 3 minutes (12–15 sentences). You have to talk continuously.

ADVANTAGES

1. It is a good way to relax after a long week of work or school
2. Watching TV together can strengthen family bonds and encourage communication
3. Can be educational if you watch informative programs like news, documentaries or history shows
4. It can inspire creativity when watching fictional shows that encourage imagination
5. You do not have to spend money to entertain yourself at home.

DISADVANTAGES

1. Can lead to inactivity as it often involves sitting down for hours.
2. Addiction to television deprives children of physical and intellectual activities like sports or reading books.
3. Sometimes the content may not be suitable for certain ages.
4. Availability of too many channels may waste time endlessly searching for something to watch instead of doing something productive.
5. Prolonged screen time affects sleep quality by suppressing melatonin levels which leads to inadequate rest.
