When we write a news report we can divide it into three or four paragraphs.

- In the introduction, we write a short summary of the event (i.e. we write what happened, where and when it happened, who was involved, etc).
  - In the main body we write a detailed description of the event.
  - In the conclusion we write people's comments.
- We normally use past tenses in this type of writing.
