

Ivan Konstantinovich Aivazovsky

Completed student 1-B
Tatiana Bogacheva

Biography

Ayvazovsky, Ivan Konstantinovich, professor of painting, the best Russian marine painter. I was born on July 17, 1817 in Feodosiya, I died on April 19, 1900. Still being the boy, And. I attracted attention the drawings and I got as the guest to Academy of Arts in 1833.

In 1848 Ivan Konstantinovich married. Ayvazovsky, Yuli Yakovlevn Grevs's first wife, the Englishwoman, the daughter of the shtabs-doctor who was on the Russian service. They had four daughters: Elena, Maria, Aleksandra and Zhanna.

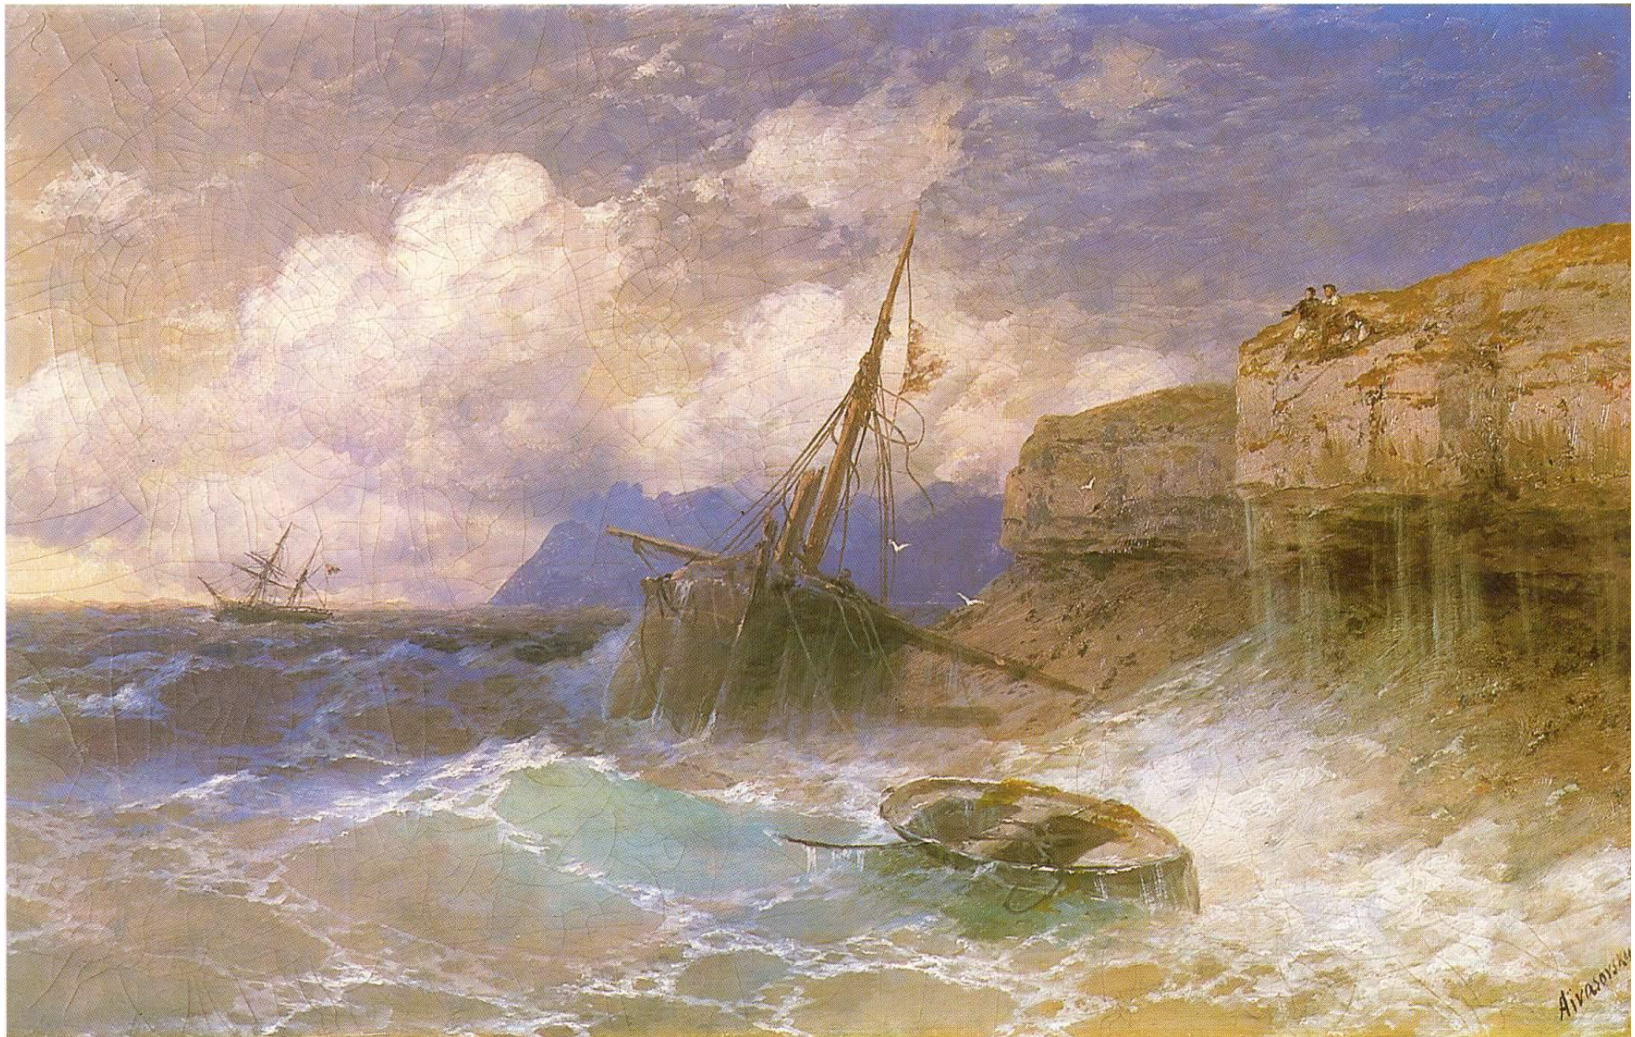

The second wife — Anna Nikitichna Sarkisova. Ayvazovsky saw Anna Nikitichna on a funeral of her husband, famous feodosiysky merchant, in 1882. The beauty of the young widow struck Ivan Konstantinovich. Anna Nikitichna's portrait written by Ayvazovsky is stored in gallery.

Anna Nikitichna Sarkisova

First work And. there was "An etude of air over by sea", written in 1835 for which he received the first silver medal.

Everywhere pictures had it effect, and glory And., as remarkable marine painter, I was established everywhere. The major works And.: "Landing of troops in Subasha's house" and "the View of Sevastopol" (1840);

"Landing of troops in Subasha's house"

"View of Sevastopol" (1840)

"The Neapolitan night",

"Storm"

"Chaos"

"Moment of creation of the world" (1864)

I.K. Ayvazovsky. Seashore at night. 1837.
Feodosiysky art gallery of I.K. Ayvazovsky.

I.K. Ayvazovsky. A brig "Mercury" after a victory over two Turkish courts. 1848. State Russian Museum.