

Medical Education in Great Britain

Several centuries ago a young man could become a doctor by serving an apprenticeship 11to a practicing physician, meanwhile taking a few night courses in anatomy

Today the future doctor must pass successfully through eight to thirteen or more years of the most demanding, intensive study before setting up his practice.

Next come about two years of internship in a hospital. The student should develop more and more skills and knowledge!