Prom

A promenade dance, commonly called a prom, is a dance party of high school students. It may be offered in semi-formal black tie or informal suit for boys, with dresses for girls. This event is typically held near the end of the senior year (the last year of high school).

Prom

Gentlemen, you are expected to wear formal attire. Formal prom attire may be classified as a tuxedo or dress suit, including a tie or bow tie, a dress shirt, which may include a vest or cummerbund, and dress shoes. Shirts are to be worn at all times.

Ladies, many girls wear ballroom style dresses. A common type is floor length gowns. Wear something that you would be comfortable in for the night. As for shoes, you do not have to wear high heels.

Sixth Form

- Final 2 (optional) years of secondary school
- 16-18 year old students
- Lower sixth – Year 12
- Upper/senior sixth form- Year 13
- More than 90% students in the UK currently attend sixth form

College

- Can either be a secondary school, offer vocational education or a tertiary educational system
- FE college (further education college): provides adult education e.g. vocational courses
- Sometimes offer A-Levels (mainly within a sixth form)

University

- Institution of higher/tertiary education or research
- Variety of academic degrees
- Undergraduate and postgraduate degrees (bachelor and master)
- Annual fees has increased (£9000+ max)
- One degree at a time
- Different types of universities e.g. collegiate, single based etc.
- 21,000 students attend Oxford (world famous university)
